

Transactions of Korean Hydrogen and New Energy Society
- Author's Checklist-
(저자 점검표)

1. Submitted manuscript must be written using Hanword program.
2. The manuscript must be composed in accordance with the style specified at the Template.
3. The name of author must be presented in both Korean and English. English name must be full name and written in the order of first name and sur name.
4. The name of author and affiliation must be matched, and the affiliation should include the department.
5. In case of the manuscript with multiple authors, the name of the primary author should come first and be followed by co-authors in accordance with the contributions.
6. The corresponding author should be identified by adding a super scriptive dagger † on the name, and e-mail address should be given on the first page at the bottom.
7. Abstract should be written in 150 words.
8. 5~6 Key words should be provided written in both Korean and English With the Korean in parenthesis.
9. Arrange the manuscript in the following order: Introduction, Main Body, Conclusion, Acknowledgement and References.
10. Write captions of tables, figures and photographs only in English with just the first letter of the first word capitalized.
11. The serial number of the section titles should not be missing.
12. Figures, tables, photographs and equations should not be missing.
13. SI unit must be used, and symbols and units should be well defined and consistent throughout the manuscript.
14. The manuscript must comply with the "Research Publication Ethics Regulations of the Korean Hydrogen and New Energy Society".
15. All references must be written only in English according to "By laws for Writing Drafts and Papers" of the Korean Society